

Dear MS Students and Families,

Thank you for an amazing school year!

Summer is a time of fun, exploration, and growth for middle school students; it is also the perfect time to READ! To read for pleasure can be one of the most rewarding activities in life. Now that the school year is coming to an end, we encourage you to continue to enjoy worthwhile books over the summer.

Attached you will find a recommended reading list from our MS team. All middle school students are required to read at LEAST 2 books this summer, either from the list below or a book of their choice (on grade level). Students will then be required to complete at LEAST 1 book project from the list below. The book project must be typed and printed before you return to school in September.

Please bring the book project with you on the FIRST day of school and submit it to your Humanities or Literature Teacher.

Have a wonderful summer and see you in September!

From,
MS Team

Book Project Requirements:

For each book project, include: Your full name, title of the book, author, number of pages, genre, main characters, setting, a 8-10 sentence objective summary, and a THEME statement.

Your assignments must be typed and printed. Make sure it is double spaced and use 12 point font. Proofread your work before printing. This is good practice for middle school, when you will be required to type many assignments. If you need to practice your typing skills, please visit these sites: <http://www.typingweb.com/> or <http://typingclub.com/>.

Book Project Options:

1. Write a 2 page question and answer interview between you and the main character in the story.
2. Write a 1-2 page letter to the author on your thoughts about the book. Avoid plot summary.
3. Pretend that you are one of the characters in the book you read. Write a journal or diary with 5 entries (paragraphs) of the character's feelings and thoughts throughout the course of the book.
4. Become one of the minor characters in your story and write 2 pages on what you like/dislike about the main character.
5. Imagine that you are the author of the book you have just read. Suddenly the book becomes a bestseller. Write a 1-2 page letter to a movie producer trying to get that person interested in making your book into a movie. Explain why the story, characters, conflicts, etc., would make a good film. Suggest a filming location and the actors to play the various roles. (Note: You may only use books which have NOT already been made into movies)
6. Write a feature article (with a headline) that tells the story of the book as it might be found on the front page of a newspaper in the town where the story takes place.
7. Write the first 3 paragraphs for a sequel. Then outline what would happen in the rest of the book.
